CORNERSTONE SOCIETY

The Cornerstone Society is a special group of donors who leave a legacy to our Masonic charities by including the Masons of California in their will or estate plan. A legacy gift to the California Masonic Foundation ensures that critical fraternal relief and support of California public education will endure for future generations. We are grateful for your support.

2012

The California Masonic Foundation launches the College Gold Rush website with assistance from the GLOW Foundation and College Access Foundation of California.

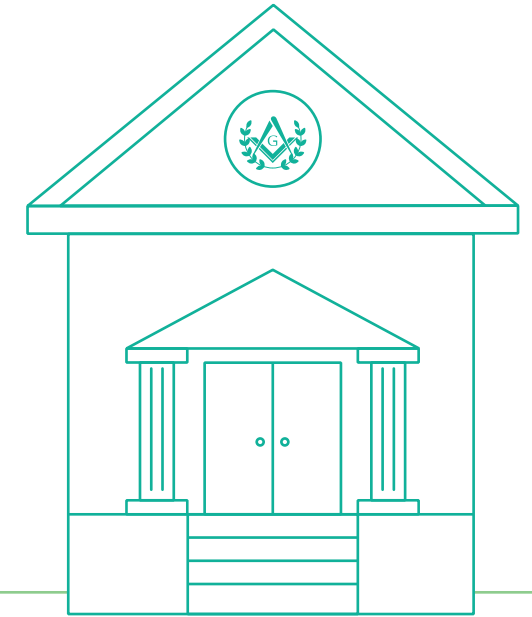

The Foundation begins a three-year fundraising effort for its Raising A Reader partnership.

2013

2016

Masonic Youth Leadership Scholarships are created.

2017

The Foundation becomes the primary fundraising agency for the fraternity, including for the Masonic Homes of California. Under this new structure, the Foundation oversees fundraising for all charitable programs.

The Foundation launches Let's Write the Future, its largest-ever charitable campaign. By 2020, it seeks to provide crucial funding for advanced care at the Masonic Homes and expanding Raising A Reader to 1,000 California classrooms.

2018

Masons4Mitts, now a statewide program serving four major league charities, celebrates its 10-year anniversary by surpassing $1 million in total donations.
